

Roman Strobl d. Ä.: Fountain object "Gobi", artificial marble version

€1,200.00

Product no.: IN-369900

In addition to his Art Nouveau-like nude objects or neoclassical goddesses, Roman Strobl the Elder devotes himself to mythology and legends for this sculpture: One evening, as he was telling his daughter Lea a bedtime story, a little gnome suddenly jumped onto the bedspread, introduced himself as the "ferocious gnome Gobi" and has been recounting his countless adventures ever since. It was born in a desert named after it and is a fellow who interferes everywhere and stands up for the weak. The little hero, who never shies away from an atrocity in its adventures if it is for a good cause, enjoys as a desert dweller the value of a particularly precious resource: water. And so he watches over the flowing water and summons the water spirits to keep it flowing...

Edition as a polymer ars mundi museum replica, hand-cast in white, polymer-bound artificial marble. Limited edition of 199 copies. Signed and numbered. Size 50 x 36 x 55 cm. The pump is not included. Weight 30 kg. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/roman-strobl-d-ae-fountain-object-gobi-artificial-marble-version-369900/>