In 1959, the Hadassah Hebrew University Hospital commissioned a set of 12 glass-painted windows from Chagall. These windows, intended for a synagogue yet to be built, would symbolise the 12 tribes of Israel. The Chagall Committee approached Bernardaud to entrust the porcelain manufacturer with the production of a few selected items using motifs from the existing archive.

The Hadassah Medical Center in Jerusalem is one of the most modern medical facilities in the Middle East and is open to people of all religions.

Bowl is decorated with one of the many poetic, fairy-tale motifs from the artist's work. Finest Limoges porcelain from the French porcelain manufacturer Bernardaud. Size 27 x 23 cm. Dishwasher safe. © ADAGP, Paris, 2021 - Chagall ®
