During the time between November 1909 and November 1910, August Macke spent time at Lake Tegernsee in the "Staudacher House", which his newlywed wife Elisabeth described as follows: "The house was a solid farmhouse, passed down through generations in the family, maintaining tradition and culture. August was able to work freely and undisturbed, especially since Staudacher provided him with an old empty workshop as a studio." As a result, almost 200 works were created here within one year. Original: oil on canvas, 41.5 x 40 cm (h/w), Ziegler Collection Foundation in the Mülheim an der Ruhr Art Museum.

Edition in sixteen-colour collotype on handmade paper. Limited worldwide edition of 333 copies. Framed in a silver-coloured solid wood frame, glazed. Size 60 x 58 cm (h/w). Lucas Lichtdruck GmbH; Edition + Verlag, 1991.
