Friedensreich Hundertwasser: (APA 378/XII) Wall relief "Tree Tenant"

Product no.: IN-730425

The wall relief "Tree Tenant" is symbol for a life in harmony with nature.

Hundertwasser envisioned the tree tenant as a widely visible symbol of the reparation toward nature. Through the tree tenant, beauty and joy of life come back being in coexistence with nature. The tree tenant is a donor, a piece of nature, a piece of home, a piece of spontaneous vegetation in the anonymous, sterile desert of the city.

In cooperation with the famous Königlich privilegierte Porzellanmanufaktur Tettau (royal privileged porcelain manufacturer Tettau) we achieved to create this exclusive Hundertwasser porcelain object. Already since 1794 the famous "T" from Bavaria has been attesting to experience, tradition and arts and crafts, that are known and appreciated by collectors and aficionados from all over the world. The high quality wall relief is trimmed with real gold and painted with 13 spot colors. Burned 3 times. Format 33 x 41 cm. Work number PM XI. Acc. to APA 378/IX. Strictly limited edition of 999 pieces, each numbered by hand. ars mundi exclusive-edition.

Supplies: The high quality wall relief will be delivered in an exclusively black card board with gold print and three different colored cords for an individual hanging.
