

Vincent van Gogh: Picture "Café Terrace at Night in Arles" (1888), framed

€490.00

Product no.: IN-911520

In 1888, van Gogh moved to Provence in search of more light and freedom. Here, under a southern sky, he created one of his most famous paintings: "Café Terrace at Night in Arles". Warm yellow and cool blue contrast effectively, and the viewer feels drawn to the illuminated terrace. The symbolic power of colour has an impact on the eye and soul.

Original: 1888, 81 x 65.5 cm, Kröller-Müller Museum, Otterlo.

Edition on artist's canvas, stretched on stretcher frame. Limited edition of 980 copies with numbered certificate on the back. Framed in golden solid wood frame. Size 74 x 61 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
