

Peter Hohberger: Sculpture "Europa" (1992), bronze version

€4,880.00

Product no.: IN-203885

Delicate eroticism of classical modernism: Hohberger's sculpture Europa, which he created in 1992, is of an open and liberating sensuality. Europa is the symbol of the feminine, not the ephemeral beauty of youth, but the eternal incentive for the man to rise to the occasion. It is the moment before the abduction: oblivious and completely relaxed, this female nude by Peter Hohberger enraptures everyone who sees it. We sense what moved Zeus when he abducted Europa disguised as a bull.

Edition in bronze. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, finely patinated and polished. Limited edition of 99 copies, numbered and signed. Format 50.5 x 18.5 cm.
