€320.00

Product no.: IN-936078

Hokusai (1760-1849) was one of the most important representatives of Ukiyo-e, the Japanese colour woodblock print. Artists such as Vincent van Gogh, Paul Gauguin, Egon Schiele and Gustav Klimt were influenced by his pictures. This motif originates from his famous series of pictures named "36 Views of Mount Fuji" (1830-36), in which Hokusai captured the landscapes around Japan's highest mountain.

Original: c. 1830-32, woodcut, 24.1 x 35.9 cm, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

Edition on handmade paper. Numbered, limited to 980 copies, with certificate. Framed in a black-silver-coloured solid wood frame, glazed. Size 34 x 50 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
