

Miniature porcelain picture "Frederick II", framed

€78.00

Product no.: IN-728424

The shaper of a period - "The Old Fritz". Frederick the Great secured Prussia's European supremacy militarily, and at the same time, he was a supporter of enlightened absolutism. As a far-sighted patron of the arts, architecture and sciences, Frederick the Great is credited with the construction of the famous Sanssouci Palace in Potsdam, among other things.

Porcelain picture "Frederick II": Mould-cast and fired relief made of Thuringian bisque porcelain. Finely polished by hand and mounted on a black passe-partout. Handmade framing of ramon wood with veneered poplar root wood. Size 10 x 11 cm.
