

Ysh Chikanobu: Picture "Kimono Blossom"

€380.00

Product no.: IN-926988

Ysh Chikanobu was a leading artist of the Meiji period (1868-1912). This was a time when Japan experienced the reinstatement of the emperor as ruler and was experiencing rapid westernisation. He was one of the most productive woodblock print artists of this time and worked with traditional motifs such as actors, courtesans, scenes of famous sites, beautiful women but also with topical subjects such as the Satsuma Rebellion (1877) and the first Japanese-Chinese War (1894-1895.)

High-quality edition on Alu-Dibond behind 3 mm thick acrylic glass, with stable mounting. Size 50 x 100 cm (h/w).

Alu-Dibond made for modern and elegant presentation: UV-resistant print, brilliant colours in high resolution, glossy finish with a protective lacquer, 3 mm aluminium composite plate in three layers. Due to the smooth surface, mirror effects may occur depending on the incidence of light.
