Andy Warhol:
Porcelain plate "Christmas - Tree"

€110.00

Product no.: IN-845846

The motif is one of many "Christmas" illustrations created in the 1950s when Andy Warhol was a very successful graphic designer. "Warhol drew elaborate Christmas wreaths and trees, colourful ornaments and created a picture story with a text titled 'Christmas Stories' in the 1950s. He drew his Christmas illustrations in bold and cheerful colours. These illustrations and his attention to detail show how much Andy Warhol loved Christmas, where he could express his creativity and masterful drawing skills."

Plate made of fine porcelain with motif "Tree" from the "Christmas Collection" by Andy Warhol, exclusively produced by the "TM Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, Inc." in collaboration with "Ligne Blanche Paris". Diameter 21 cm, signed by Andy Warhol on the back. Supplied in a red/brown Andy Warhol gift box.
