Product no.: IN-943309

Fairies have existed since ancient civilizations and perhaps even longer if we consider the beginnings. As small, winged beings related to flowers, they appear in Shakespeare's works, and their first heyday was in Victorian England, where children's books were teeming with them.

By the way, they are currently experiencing a resurgence: hardly any little girl can resist their fantastic charm. From the book our nature-inspired fairy is perusing emerges a ladybug.

Edition in bronze, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, chiselled and patinated by hand. Size 14 x 10.5 x 29.5 cm (h/w/d). Weight 1.5 kg. Stone is not included.
