

Osiris with Crown

€580.00

Product no.: IN-340164

The hope of the afterlife was associated with the god Osiris with the end of the Old Kingdom. The mythical ruler of the afterlife was "Lord of Abydos", presiding over the court of the dead, and as the god of vegetation, he also embodied rebirth. In the hands of the statue are his gold-embazoned insignia of rule: crook and frond. On his head, he wears the feather-adorned Atef crown. Original: National Museums in Berlin - Prussian Cultural Heritage, Egyptian Museum. Late period, 6th/5th century BC.

Green patinated cast metal, partially gold-plated on a black diabase base. Size 5 x 19 x 5 cm.
