Product no.: IN-775093.R1

The spiral is one of the great themes we encounter repeatedly in Hundertwasser's work. For Hundertwasser, the spiral is the symbol of life, which develops from a tiny cell, grows slowly and organically and finally fades away into infinity. Organically, like growth rings, one winding of the great path wraps itself around the other in a harmony of colours that only nature can produce: Colours and forms as music to the eye.

High-quality reproduction with foil stamping. Framed in a silver-coloured solid wood frame. Size 80 x 81 cm. The big Way. The big Way. Le grand Chemin, 1955. (Vienna, Österreichische Galerie). © 2012 Stiebner Verlag GmbH, Munich, and Gruener Janura AG, Glarus, 15th edition 27501-29000.
