

Franz Marc: Picture "Two Horses" (1911/12), framed

€330.00

Product no.: IN-791869

It was an extremely eventful time in which the "Two Horses" were created: Franz Marc met August Macke in 1910, and on New Year's Day 1911, he met Gabriele Münter, Marianne Werefkin and Wassily Kandinsky for the first time - through Alexej Jawlensky. Thus, within a short time, the members of one of the most important groups of artists of the 20th century had been assembled. In December 1911, the "Blaue Reiter" was founded, and Kandinsky later said about the name: "We both loved blue, Marc - horses, and I - equestrian. That's how the name arose naturally".

The original work, which was painted in mixed media, belongs to the collection of the Kunsthalle Hamburg.

Museum reproduction in high-quality Fine Art Giclée process on finest real handmade watercolour paper. Limited edition of 499 copies. Noble solid wood framing in black with gold, matt patinated, dustproof glazed. Size 40 x 53 cm (h/w).

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/franz-marc-picture-two-horses-1911-12-framed-791869/>