

Raffaello Santi: Picture "Triumph of Galatea" (1512/13), framed

€548.00

Product no.: IN-715687.R1

Galatea is riding on a shell-chariot drawn by two dolphins and surrounded by mythical creatures. The sea nymph only looks up to the left, to Cupid hidden behind a cloud, who symbolises Platonic love. If we take the golden section as a scale of division, it meets the forelock of Galatea exactly from above and thus designates the heavenly world. Thus, the lower part encompasses the representation of earthly life.

Original: Fresco, Villa Farnesina, Rome.

The original artwork was transferred directly onto artist's canvas using the Fine Art Giclée process and mounted on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 499 copies, numbered on the back and with certificate. Framed in handmade real wood museum frame with gold leaf gilding. Size 61 x 79 cm. Exclusively at ars mundi.
