Product no.: IN-897660

Wood - a gift of nature. Its processing has fascinated and inspired artists throughout all centuries. With great attention to detail, small masterpieces of lasting value are created. They create an atmospheric ambience, especially during the Christmas season.

"Star of Bethlehem": tradition meets modernity. This group of 12 -pcs nativity scenes made of precious sycamore maple wood is created in a South Tyrolean workshop. The ensemble inspires with masterly woodcarving in a contemporary reduced version. A discreet painting with oil colours sets effective accents. Size of the stable 20 x 25 x 9 cm (h/w/d). The figurine height varies from 4 to 12 cm.
