

Roman: Sculpture pair "Bull and Bear", bonded bronze version

€960.00

Product no.: IN-357034

In the 16th century, the Spanish introduced bullfighting to the New World. However, the Mexicans changed the rules without further ado and sent the bull into the arena with a chained grizzly. The poet Don José de la Vega transferred this picture to the scene at the Amsterdam Stock Exchange in 1688. Since then, bull and bear have been as much a part of the stock market world as Dow Jones and Wall Street.

Limited artist's editions, numbered and signed. Bull size: 30 x 20 x 11 cm (w/h/d), weight approx. 3.2 kg. Size bear: 26 x 14 x 10 cm (w/h/d), weight approx. 2.6 kg. Edition in bonded bronze. Polymer cast, cast by hand, with bronze patina. Limited edition of 299 copies each. Set of both sculptures.
