

Buddha head "Supanburi", cast

€548.00

Product no.: IN-009715

On the quest for enlightenment, the prince from the Shakya dynasty spent seven years in absolute asceticism. This unique Buddha head from Wat Pa Pratad depicts the teacher of the Four Noble Truths in complete serenity and is probably one of the most beautiful Buddha representations ever. The face shows the typical style of the Dvâravatî period.

Original: Staatl. Museum für Völkerkunde, Munich. Thailand, Wat Pa Pratad, 7th-9th century AD.

Polymer ars mundi museum replica, cast by hand, height incl. pedestal 34 cm. Size pedestal 14 x 14 cm. Weight approx. 9 kg.
