

Miniature porcelain picture "Queen Luise", framed

€78.00

Product no.: IN-722225

During her lifetime, Luise of Mecklenburg-Strelitz (1776-1810), Queen of Prussia since her marriage to Frederick William III, was highly revered by her subjects. After her early death, her life and work were shrouded in myth.

Mould-cast and fired relief of Thuringian bisque porcelain. Finely polished by hand and mounted on a black passe-partout. An atmospheric handmade frame of Ramin wood with veneered poplar root wood. On the back, there is a short biography of the Queen. Size 10 x 11 cm.
