

Lladró: Porcelain sculpture "Passionate Kiss"

€2,420.00

Product no.: IN-777443

In 1953, the brothers Juan, José and Vicente Lladró founded a porcelain manufacturing company near Valencia, Spain, and initially produced vases and small jugs. Three years later, they decided to produce figurines. Since 1956, these works of art made of the finest porcelain have been delighting a steadily growing fan community worldwide. The descendants of the three Lladró founding brothers have also devoted themselves to the art of porcelain. A closely guarded company secret is the recipe of the specially developed porcelain paste that gives the figurines their unique character. The formula for the glossy coating is also a secret. Many limited editions have become sought-after collectors' items.

The two lovers that are intimately hugging each other are completely oblivious to the world around them. What counts is only their affection for each other. The fine workmanship of this artwork underlines the couple's liveliness and charisma. Size approx. 31 x 41 x 38 cm (w/h/d).
