

Miniature porcelain picture "Giuseppe Verdi", framed

€78.00

Product no.: IN-827856

Giuseppe Verdi (1813-1901): Italy's most renowned composer lived a life full of ups and downs - during which he wrote a number of the most wonderful operas that are still among the most famous in the musical world today.

The miniature portrait was transferred by hand onto fine Thuringian porcelain and fired twice. The porcelain picture is mounted on a fabric passe-partout and atmospherically framed in a handmade frame made of rammed wood with veneered poplar root wood and glazed dust-proof. Size 10 x 11 cm. On the back of the picture is a biography with the most important dates of his life.
