

August Macke: Set of 3 pictures, framed

€390.00

Product no.: IN-782751

Paul Klee, Louis Moilliet and August Macke's trip to Tunis made art history: Under the African sun, they revolutionised their painting style one after the other, found countless motifs in the winding alleys and dealt with the themes of form and colour in a completely new way.

Their first stop was the villa district of St. Germain, today's Ez-Zahra near Tunis. Ernst Jäggi, a doctor who was a friend of Moilliet, lived here. Even to this day, his house exists. And a century after the legendary journey, Macke's Tunis paintings still bear witness to his painterly genius.

Three selected works from the last and strongest period of Macke's artistic work have been brought together in this limited edition of 1,000 copies each. Each motif has been lavishly reproduced on 225g embossed real handmade paper. Framed in a solid wood frame. Size 38 x 33 cm (h/w).

"The Bright House" (1914): 1st version, Original: Aquarelle over pencil on handmade paper.

"Inner Courtyard of the Country House in St. Germain" (1914): Original: Aquarelle and pencil on paper.

"St. Germain near Tunis" (1914): Original: Aquarelle on paper.

The set includes all three pictures.
