€1,600.00

Product no.: IN-687735

Paul Wunderlich has fascinatingly united the characteristic features of the owl in his bronze sculpture. With wings spread, it sits vigilantly in front of the viewer, for it is only at dusk that Minerva's owl spreads its wings. Nothing seems to escape the wide-open eyes. The expression of attentiveness is reinforced by the 360-degree rotating head, which can keep a lookout in all directions. The artist's signature makes this sculpture a masterpiece. Wunderlich structures the bronze in a varied way and gives it plasticity. The patination in green and gold gives the bird liveliness and authenticity.

Sculpture in fine bronze, patinated, partially polished. Cast by hand using the Lost-Wax-Process. On a bronze plinth. Edition of 900 copies, numbered and signed. The head of the owl is movable. Height 15 cm, width 12 cm. Plinth 12 x 7 cm, weight 1.7 kg.
