Product no.: IN-903054

The squirrel has spent a long time in hibernation, mainly in its nest. But the first rays of spring sunshine are inviting it out into the open air - after all, it has been storing up food for the past autumn, and its delicate nose will tell it where to find it again. It looks curiously out of its "drey" - the term is used by experts to describe the squirrel's nest.

Sculpture in bronze, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, chiselled and patinated by hand. Size 28 x 15 x 11 cm (h/w/d). Weight approx. 2,2 kg. With suspension device.
