

Carl Spitzweg: Picture "The Poor Poet" (1839), framed

€460.00

Product no.: IN-726275.R1

Symbol of the German poet and thinker: "The Poor Poet". No other work of art by Spitzweg enjoys such great popularity to this day. A survey showed that "The Poor Poet" - right after Leonardo da Vinci's "Mona Lisa" - is one of the most popular pictures among Germans.

The picture of the poet concentrating only on the spiritual is prototypically staged here by Spitzweg: Equipped against the cold with a blanket, a scuffed jacket and a sleeping cap and protected with an umbrella against penetrating rainwater, he devotes himself undeterred to his work.

Original: Neue Pinakothek, Munich.

Brilliant Reproduced using the Fine Art Giclée process directly on artist's canvas, mounted on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 499 copies, numbered on the back and with certificate. Framed in a fine handmade solid wood studio frame in antique platinum with reddish brown. Size 57 x 69 cm (h/w).
