

Paul Klee: Picture "Highway and Byways" (1929), framed

€540.00

Product no.: IN-885390

"Highway and Byways" is one of his most famous paintings. It is part of his numerous layered and striped paintings. Klee painted it in January 1929, after his second trip to Egypt. With this painting, he processes the experiences of light and colour in Egypt- the atmospheric key to understanding an ancient culture - the blue of the Nile, the yellow-orange of the Egyptian sun and the colour layers of the ornamental bands in the burial chambers of Assuan.

Original: 1929, oil on canvas, 83 x 67 cm, Museum Ludwig, Cologne.

High-quality Fine Art Giclée museum reproduction in 8 colours on artist's cotton canvas. Limited edition 499 copies. On stretcher frame. Framed in a solid wood frame with a black silver shadow gap. Size approx. 92 x 73 cm (h/w)
