

Valerie Otte: Sculpture "Thinking of You", green/grey bronze version

€2,980.00

Product no.: IN-894483

Valerie Otte's bronze figures rarely present actual portraits but instead sensitive character studies. They do not offer the viewer a pose but rather a view of people to whom one involuntarily attributes an emotional inner life.

Otte's figures are completely at peace with themselves, making the viewers believe they are witnessing an intimate moment. Nevertheless, they are "in the world", which is particularly clear in her work entitled "Thinking of You": The young woman sits on a chair, lost in thought - perhaps in a quiet flat, perhaps in a busy café - and gazes pensively at her mobile phone. It may be that she is still hesitating to call a dear, missing person, or perhaps she is looking at a photo of them. However, there is no doubt that her thoughts are connected to the outside world. Valerie Otte gives the viewer deep insight into the world of her protagonist's thoughts.
