The Norwegian painter Edvard Munch was a master at transforming his motifs into symbols for moods and feelings. That not only applies to his most famous works, such as "The Scream" or "Madonna", but also to his landscape paintings. Four of his works represent the seasons. This one is dedicated to summer.

"The Garden in Asgardstrand" shows a cottage in the small Norwegian town where Munch had spent many summer holidays. Original: 1904-05, oil on canvas, 68 x 90.5 cm, privately owned.

Edition lavishly printed on handmade paper-like, heavy 250g Gmund Tactile. Framed in high-quality golden solid wood frame, glazed. Size 37 x 44 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
