

Johann Baptist Lenz: Sculpture "Eve on Apple", bronze version

€2,680.00

Product no.: IN-769953

Lenz's desire to create was driven by his Christian beliefs. One of his main areas of work was the decoration of sanctuaries, churches and chapels. Among these works are numerous highly realistic depictions of, for example, John the Baptist or the despairing, devastated Saint Peter. But Lenz (1922-2007) sometimes approached religious themes with his characteristic humour. For example, his "Eve on an Apple" recaptures an original motif that has long since become a stereotype in art history in a new variation. That is especially evident in the way the sculpture plays with the set pieces of the biblical tale in a tongue-in-cheek manner.
