What Tahiti meant to Paul Gauguin, the Baltic coast meant to Max Pechstein: a paradise where he found peace, but above all great inspiration. Pechstein went to the Baltic coast every summer for over twenty years. The pipe in the corner of his mouth, tanned and the anchor tattooed, the pristine nature with its beach lakes and the fishing boats in the harbour accompanied the passionate angler Pechstein until the end of his life.

High-quality reproduction on heavy Hahnemühle handmade paper. Framed in a handmade, black solid wood frame with passe-partout, glazed. Limited edition of 199 copies, numbered on the back. Size approx. 51 x 62 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition. © 2022 Pechstein Hamburg / Preetz.
