

Andora + Della:

Sculpture "The Flying Buddha Doll" (2000), bronze version hand-painted

€2,880.00

Product no.: IN-370160

Traditional representations of the Buddha inspired Andora and Della to create a modern interpretation of the enlightened one with their "Flying Buddha Doll". It is not an altarpiece but rather a symbol for the people of today. Independent, self-confident and free of dogmas. Just as Buddha was in his time. Flying Buddha rests within himself, and his smile is introspective. He sits on a throne of clouds with the world at his feet. The candle, a sign of enlightenment, reflects humanity, warmth and poetry. The key opens new spaces of knowledge and is thus also the key to happiness.
