

Michael Michaud: Pin "Orange Blossom"

€198.00

Product no.: IN-906750

Michael Michaud captures the beauty of nature with his work. He creates detailed, true-to-life botanical jewellery. Each piece is made by hand. Similar to a Lost-Wax-Process, the designer uses moulds that have been taken directly from the botany.

For centuries, the orange blossom has symbolised purity, innocence, chastity and fertility. In 1684, Louis XIV moved from Fontainebleau to Versailles and established his orangery there, as he was so fond of the sweet fragrance and the wonderful white blossoms. Hand-patinated bronze with freshwater pearls. Size 3.8 x 4.4 cm (l/w).
