

Roman Johann Strobl: Sculpture "Sitting Nude", bronze version

€3,780.00

Product no.: IN-223448

The Tyrolean sculptor Roman Johann Strobl surprises us time and again with his brilliant artistic interpretations of female grace and elegance. Aphrodite, the foam-born, could not have been more beautiful than the woman depicted in this sculpture. The austere structure of the sculpture with the hands folded behind the head forms a wonderful contrast to the aesthetic elegance of the youthful body. The young woman is dreaming of her lover with an oblivious expression on her face and her eyes closed.

Edition in bronze. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Limited edition of 99 copies. Numbered, signed and hallmarked with the foundry stamp. Size 26 x 38 x 22 cm (w/h/d).
