

Marc van Megen: Sculpture "When the lady smiles" (1995), bronze

€5,800.00

Product no.: IN-241548

With his graceful bronze sculptures, Dutchman Marc van Megen conjures up a world in which, far from the realities of everyday life, fantasy and idealism set the tone. "When the lady smiles" is what the artist named his creation, a woman's body of super-slim elegance growing out of a calyx, on her head a dream of a hat.

Bronze sculpture. Limited world edition of only 99 copies. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Finely polished, two-tone patinated, numbered and signed, with a hallmark of the foundry. Mounted on a black marble pedestal 15 x 15 x 10 cm. Height incl. pedestal 80 cm. Weight 10 kg.
