Product no.: IN-303352

It was a time of new beginnings: after the religiously dominated Middle Ages, geniuses such as Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo Buonarroti went down unprecedented paths and opened the door to a new age. The return to classical Greek antiquity was only an apparent contradiction; because like their Hellenistic ancestors, the artists and scientists of the Renaissance rediscovered humankind, nature and their interrelationships, strived for perfection and found new forms of expression in art.

Leonardo da Vinci's famous pen and ink drawing from one of his legendary notebooks have become a worldwide trademark for progress, science and medicine. Available from ars mundi, the standing relief is an eye-catcher for any desk. Polymer cast, cast by hand, with fine bronze patina, with signed text on the back, size 16 x 17 x 3.5 cm.
