

Francesco da Sant'Agata: Sculpture "The Flute Player", cast metal

€660.00

Product no.: IN-054354

In keeping with the Mannerist intention to "give pleasure and astonish", the ingenious goldsmith and Renaissance master transported the woman-attracting ancient woodland creature of the buck-footed satyr to the bucolic, seductive, graceful shepherd boy. Padua 1520.

Original: Sculpture Gallery of the National Museums in Berlin - Prussian Cultural Heritage Foundation.

Cast metal with brown silky Renaissance patina. Height including marble pedestal 40 cm. Weight 4.7 kg.
