

Claude Monet: Picture "Water Lilies" (1916), white and golden framed version

€490.00

Product no.: IN-906480

They are considered to be part of the most famous works of Impressionism and one of the most expensive paintings in the world: The series "Nymphéas", which Claude Monet created in his garden in Giverny at an advanced age. The series is characterised by the use of the "short brushstroke" technique, which Monet brought to perfection. With this technique, he succeeded in capturing the shimmering of the air over the water in a unique way.

Original: 1916, oil on canvas, National Museum of Western Art, Tokyo.

Fine Art Giclée print on canvas in a fine, handcrafted real wood frame. Limited edition of 980 copies, with certificate of authenticity. Framed in white and golden solid wood frame. Size 73 x 73 cm.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/claude-monet-picture-water-lilies-1916-white-and-golden-framed-version-906480/>