€69,800.00

Product no.: IN-898080

The Roman Gaia, the African Konkomba, the South American Pachamama, the Indian Prithivi - mythologies all over the world know the motif of the primordial mother. Often, the origin of the world and nature are linked to highly revered female figures. Beth Newman-Maguire's "Dancing Mother Earth", who, wrapped in foliage, elegantly dances to distribute life and fertility, thus goes back to an ancient, archetypal myth - even if she knows how to express it in a stylistically highly modern way.

Unique piece in bronze, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, chiselled and patinated by hand. Size 250 x 100 x 115 cm (h/w/d). Weight approx. 291 kg.
