

Peter Hohberger: Sculpture "Lovers" (1982), bonded bronze version

€1,480.00

Product no.: IN-208067

The work of the sculptor Peter Hohberger reveals his deep affinity with classical Greek sculpture. This makes him similar to Auguste Rodin, probably the greatest sculptor of this century. Another parallel is his attraction to sensual-erotic themes. Thus, it is not surprising that Hohberger's "Lovers" evokes aspects of Rodin's "Springtime of Life": a couple completely absorbed in their own emotional world emerges from a charming interplay of light and shadow, which takes shape in the depressions and elevations of this group, which is both alive and animated.

Edition in bonded bronze. Polymer ars mundi museum replica cast by hand, numbered and signed. Edition of 199 copies only. Size 47 x 27 cm. Weight approx. 20 kg.
