A moment full of rest and relaxation: Leo Wirth's "Reading Woman".

The sculptor Leo Wirth draws his inspiration from people's everyday lives but always adds his interpretations to his sculptures. When shaping his sculptures, he recognisably focuses on the natural proportions of human beings and attaches great importance to a pictorial elaboration of the contours. Wirth's sculpture "Reading Woman" resembles the real beauty of the female body. It shows a young woman reading a book with concentration and thus symbolises rest and relaxation.
