Two mountain peaks emerge from a fog bank, covered with the first snow of the year, and behind them is a huge full moon. This motif is based on Börner's impressions of his Alps crossing in 1980. The moon was inspired by an interestingly structured and coloured natural stone from his collection.

Wall object made of natural slate and bronze. Mountains made of patinated bronze, treated with airbrush technique, moon polychromed. Catalogue raisonné no. 480, signed by the artist. Size 20 x 15 x 2.5 cm. With suspension device.
