Picture "Park in Dilborn with Lime-Green Trees" (1915), framed

€330.00

Product no.: IN-757900

Heinrich Nauen's watercolours from Dilborn: From 1911 to 1931, Nauen spent his happiest and most artistically productive years together with his wife at Dilborn Castle near Brüggen. The works of this period radiate a profoundly affirmative attitude to life. The castle and its park repeatedly offered him new motifs.

Original: Tempera and chalk. Clemens-Sels Museum, Neuss.

The original artwork was transferred directly onto 100% cotton artist canvas using the Fine Art Giclée process for a brilliant, authentic reproduction and mounted on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 499 copies with a numbered certificate on the back. Exclusively at ars mundi. Framed in a high-quality silver-coloured shadow gap. Size approx. 64 x 69 cm.
