

Auguste Rodin: Sculpture "The Eternal Spring" (1884), bonded bronze version

€590.00

Product no.: IN-399668

Through impressionist surface modelling, the artist achieves an interplay of light: flickering highlights and mysterious shadows animate his figures and bring them to life. "I do not say that the woman is like a landscape in which the incidence of sunlight changes, but the comparison is fitting," Rodin expressed in the spirit of Impressionism.
