€590.00

Product no.: IN-749854.R1

Peter Strang proves with his porcelain paintings that he has not only mastered his material when designing sculptures and figurines, but he can also shine when it comes to two dimensions. In both cases, he expands an old form of craftsmanship with his new ideas.

Porcelain picture "The Temptation":

Not the biblical serpent but a devilish figure hands Eve the apple from the tree of knowledge - and also makes other very blatant approaches. Strang turns it into a clash of bright white and deepest black: the first black spot already appears on the cheek of the "blushing" beauty.

Hard porcelain picture decorated with a gold staffage fired at 1,300 degrees. Made in the Schwarzburger Werkstätten für Porzellankunst. Limited edition of 198 copies, in sophisticated solid wood framing. Size 25.9 x 30.4 cm. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
