

Robert Zielasco: Picture "Temple of Segesta" (2004), framed

€790.00

Product no.: IN-740531.R1

In luminous Greek blue: Zielasco's "Temple of Segesta": His temple shows the epitome of Doric architecture in Sicily. Already Goethe admired this never completed building because it provided insight into the spirit and idea of ancient architecture. This is also the case with Zielasco's work: although it is still a temple, it is also an abstract surface. It is a representation but also a play with perspective.

Giclée print on canvas, stretched on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 199 copies, signed and numbered on the back. Stretcher frame size 97.5 x 140 cm. Framed in a solid wood frame with a silver shadow gap. Size 102.5 x 145 cm. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/robert-zielasco-picture-temple-of-segesta-2004-framed-740531-r1/>