

Franz von Stuck: Picture "Bathing Women" (c. 1920), framed

€498.00

Product no.: IN-721845.R1

Franz von Stuck (1863-1928) was knighted in 1906 and henceforth known as Franz Ritter von Stuck. He was counted among the "Munich painter princes", like Lehnbach and Kaulbach. His students at the Munich Academy included Wassily Kandinsky and Paul Klee. Stuck's works with their often lasciviously erotic motifs were sometimes considered provocative in the staid Kaiserreich. However, the group of summer resort girls is comparatively restrained - and, as a modern version of an old art-historical motif, reaches far back into antiquity.

Original oil on cardboard, 50 x 53.3 cm. Privately owned.

Brilliant reproduction in Fine Art Giclée directly on artist's canvas, mounted on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 499 copies, numbered on the back and with certificate. Framed in a handmade real wood frame. Size 72 x 76 cm (h/w). Exclusively at ars mundi.
