

Replica "Head of Sargon of Akkad", cast

€1,440.00

Product no.: IN-237579

Sargon (2350-2295 BC) was the founder of Akkad and thus of the first centrally administered great empire in history. His people revered him as a divine being. This head once belonged to a life-size statue.

Original: National Museum of Iraq, Baghdad. Nineveh Mesopotamia, c. 2350 BC, copper.

Polymer ars mundi museum replica cast by hand, height incl. pedestal 53 cm. Diabase pedestal 21 x 21 x 12 cm (w/h/d).

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/replica-head-of-sargon-of-akkad-cast-237579/>