

Trundholm Sun Chariot, reduction

€490.00

Product no.: IN-277015

While ploughing the moorland of Trundholm, Zealand, a Danish farmer discovered this masterpiece from the Germanic Bronze Age (14th-13th century) in 1902. Today, the horse-drawn cult chariot is a danish national treasure.
Original: National Museum Copenhagen.

Reduction. ars mundi museum replica made of cast metal. The right sun disk is partially gold-plated and symbolises the sun, the day. The left side is dark and symbolises the night. 19 x 11.2 x 7.5 cm.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/trundholm-sun-chariot-reduction-277015/>