

Scribe Statue of Henka

€880.00

Product no.: IN-057244

The true importance of courtiers and officials in pharaonic Egypt becomes apparent in their privilege to "immortalise" themselves, symbolising their status and education. An example is this scribe figure of Henka, whose base plate on the front records the name and title of the tomb's owner.

Original: National Museums in Berlin - Prussian Cultural Heritage, Egyptian Museum. Old Kingdom, 5th Dynasty c. 2400 BC, limestone.

Polymer ars mundi museum replica cast by hand. Height 40 cm.
