Marc Chagall:

Les Vitraux d'Hadassah by Bernardaud - Set of 6 plates with artist's motifs, porcelain

€789.00

Product no.: IN-794117

In 1959, the Hadassah Hebrew University Hospital commissioned a set of 12 glass-painted windows from Chagall. These windows, intended for a synagogue yet to be built, would symbolise the 12 tribes of Israel. The Chagall Committee approached Bernardaud to entrust the porcelain manufacturer with the production of a few selected items using motifs from the existing archive.

The Hadassah Medical Center in Jerusalem is one of the most modern medical facilities in the Middle East and is open to people of all religions.

6 individual plates, each decorated with one of the numerous poetic, magical motifs drawn from the artist's work: "Tribu Gad", "Tribu Asher", "Tribu Issachar", "Tribu Dan", "Tribu Nephtali" and "Tribu Joseph". Diameter of each plate 27 cm. Dishwasher safe. Only available as a set. © ADAGP, Paris, 2015 - Chagall ®
